
Australia's National Monument to Migration

A donation has been made to the Migration Heritage Fund to honour you as one of Australia's migrants.

To

Your name will be engraved in bronze on Australia's National Monument to Migration at the Australian National Maritime Museum and your migration story preserved for you, your family and the nation.

As part of this gift, you will be invited to a special unveiling ceremony at the Museum where your name will join the thousands of people who travelled from around the world to make Australia their new home.

From
